"Learning and living. But they really are the same thing, aren't they?

There is no experience from which you can't learn something. When you stop learning you stop living in any vital and meaningful sense."

Eleanor Roosevelt

For four decades the students at Judson have expanded their horizons within this context. This is growth towards the recognition that Einstein posits in his space-light theory. His "mystery and meaning" of space and time is for each individual to probe within himself. All of us strive that each student at Judson will come to that realization.

JUDSON SCHOOL

In the back of our minds there will always be certain places and times to remember. Memories of our yesterdays and tomorrows will always be with us, and we will cherish our friends and young loves of our school years. Tomorrow and today our memories will never pass away.

Places to be remembered

Halloween Fun

Halloween is a traditional festivity around Judson. Early in the week there was competition pumpkin carvings between dorms; Acacia and Cholla were winning dorms. Upper and lower school paraded around and competed for most original, funniest, prettiest, and ugliest costumes. Then lower school had a big Halloween party, playing games, eating candy, and going through the haunted house.

Margot Dillard, Fred Slyfield, Missy James, and Pam Lien were Halloween contestant winners.

Preceding the Homecoming football game and crowning of the queen, the Judson Color Guard carried the state, national, and school flags onto the field. Judson scored a victory over Saint John's football team, and at halftime the attendants and the elected Homecoming Queen were announced.

The crowd participation was enthusiastic and the game provided excitement for everybody.

Administration leads way

Rev. C. Wick III - Director

Hugh M. Slattery - Headmaster

The roots of the entire Judson organization lay in the administrative staff. These highly skilled, concerned and understanding men and women all work toward a common goal. Each member acknowledged and agreed that their aim was to make Judson an even more outstanding and highly respected school than it already was.

Judson was a little world in itself, with the administration as the center of all activities. Keeping the internal affairs of the school running smoothly and aiding all the students in their personal and academic lives, were duties in which the staff was very proficient. It was through the much felt and appreciated efforts of these dedicated individuals that our school year was so successful.

Office personnel

To carry out the difficult duties that keep a private school of Las-sons size going requires some extraordinary people.

The secretarial staff kept busy typing letters, report cards, and answering numerous phone calls.

The accounting department prepared all the financial information.

Lauri Hershey, Fannie DeWitt, Carolyn Finch, Keely Johnson

Accounting department

Denby Fessler, Constance Stoltz, Georgia Hill, Jerry Gammie, LaVonne Carter

A busy man

Ron Goodman keeps very busy as Head of Supervision and Head of Boys' Residence. Ron devotes most of his energy and time to keep the campus orderly.

They keep us healthy

Laura Ruth Lewis, Loretta Scarp, Ann Roberts, Betty Daly, Betty Ann Ramsey, and Myrtle Olsen

Nurses in the Health Center were on duty 24 hours a day, ready for any student's minor accidents and illnesses. They made doctors appointments and gave medication for those who needed extra medical attention.

Maintenance is always busy

Many thanks to our skillful maintenance staff. Without these talented fix-it men, who knows how we would have survived. Whenever a problem arose we never feared, because the Judson maintenance was always here.

Editor: Puerto Jim Brower Art: Young Dan
McWeeney, Taylor J. L. Brown

Housekeepers spruce up dorms

If not for the housekeeping women the whole Judson campus would have turned into a desert. Huns and dust storms provided these hard working ladies with a very formidable job, but the dorms and classrooms were always clean.

Sonia Alvarado, Linda Meyer, Leah Price,
Anna Wootring, Dorothy McNelly, Tilly
Herriman

Cooks work efficiently

Robert Osterhaut, Lauren Fugate, Wes Hall, George Cooper

Meals were a tasty treat for those used to institutional cooking at other boarding schools, and no let down for those having home-cooked food all their lives, either. Food was deliciously prepared to satisfy the hunger of busy and active students, and delivered to our clutching hands by some of the most cheerful and happy ladies, ever. Amid cries for peanut butter, jelly, and second helpings, the staff was always there with a smile.

Dining Staff is always pleasant

Bookstore furnishes supplies

The bookstore was one of the most important places on campus. More like a little general store, Lib and Grace supplied us not only with books and school materials, but with such needed items as shampoo, stationery, and T-shirts.

Lib Schaare and Grace Hovland

Gatemen provide security

Judson gatemen presented a pleasant front to our visitors and guests and assisted in giving directions to dorms and various places around campus. Gatemen also protected us from bothersome intruders and there were never any problems.

George Cavanaugh

Joe Woodring

Supervision checks campus

The supervisors worked around the clock 7 days a week overseeing all activities and goings on, and helping to maintain a pleasant environment

Jack Griner, Kurt Freitag, Preston Brady, Bud Kiekinteld, Ronald Goodman, Larry Gillen, and Yukoo the Wonderdog

Drivers transport students

Getting day students to and from school, trips for boarders into town and driving classes on field trips were invaluable duties of the bus drivers.

Paula John, Ken Wick, Paul Whitehair and Wilfred John.

Fun and games unlimited

Student Activities were a special treat this year at Judson. With the companionship and cheerfulness of Mrs. Ruth Young, every event was a memorable one. Such trips as Grand Canyon, Water-skiing and Rock Concerts were especially favorites. Ruth honestly feels the year has gone by so fast, but she has enjoyed every minute of it.

Horsemanship at Judson ranked pretty high with most of the students. The competent corral staff taught us Western riding and equestrian skills.

Mrs. Ruth Young

Few schools have Corral set-up

Melva McDowell, Preston Brady, Ruth Frank, Ellie Trepes, Linda Phillips

Ceramics, Home Ec are favorites

Dave Lang and Mrs. Sandra Grotl

Not only are the students instructed in the use of the potters wheel, but also in different hand building techniques and more. Mrs. Sandra Grotl is new on the Jansen faculty this year.

Home Ec is a learning experience. It is also a pleasurable experiment in the basics of cooking and sewing. The girls are taught menu planning and food preparation. In sewing they learn how to use patterns and to design.

Student Council was the legislative assembly which represented the entire high school student body. It consisted of eight students who were assigned the important duty of making recommendations to the Standards Committee and school administration concerning student welfare. Student Council upheld high academic standards and maintained high morale and school spirit.

Liaison Committee was arranged for the purpose of creating union between students and faculty.

Valedictorian Vichaow Rakphongphairdj

Vichaow placed first in his class achieving a 4.0 grade average throughout his four high school years.

Vichaow was born in Bangkok, Thailand July 7, 1957. When he was five, he went to school in Hong Kong until 1974. Then he went back to Bangkok to finish high school. This year Vichaow came to Judson for a year of English schooling.

Vichaow is Parliamentarian of the Adventist School Student Association and was elected to National Honor Society in his senior year.

He plans to go to college and major in Electrical Engineering.

Salutatorian Dorie Vlatten

Dorie was born February 23, 1959, in Newark, New Jersey, and is now living in Chandler, Arizona. Dorie has attended Judson for two years.

She was selected to the National Honor Society in her junior year and received the U of A Outstanding Junior Award. Dorie was secretary of the Student Council her junior year and president of Student Council her senior year.

Dorie plans to attend the University of Arizona and major in Animal Health Science.

George Aldrich Award

Khaldoun Jallad was born May 12, 1954 in Tulkarm, Jordan, but he has lived in Saudi Arabia most of his life. Khal has received awards for the Best Defensive Back in football; Most Improved Soccer Player, and was very involved in basketball and baseball.

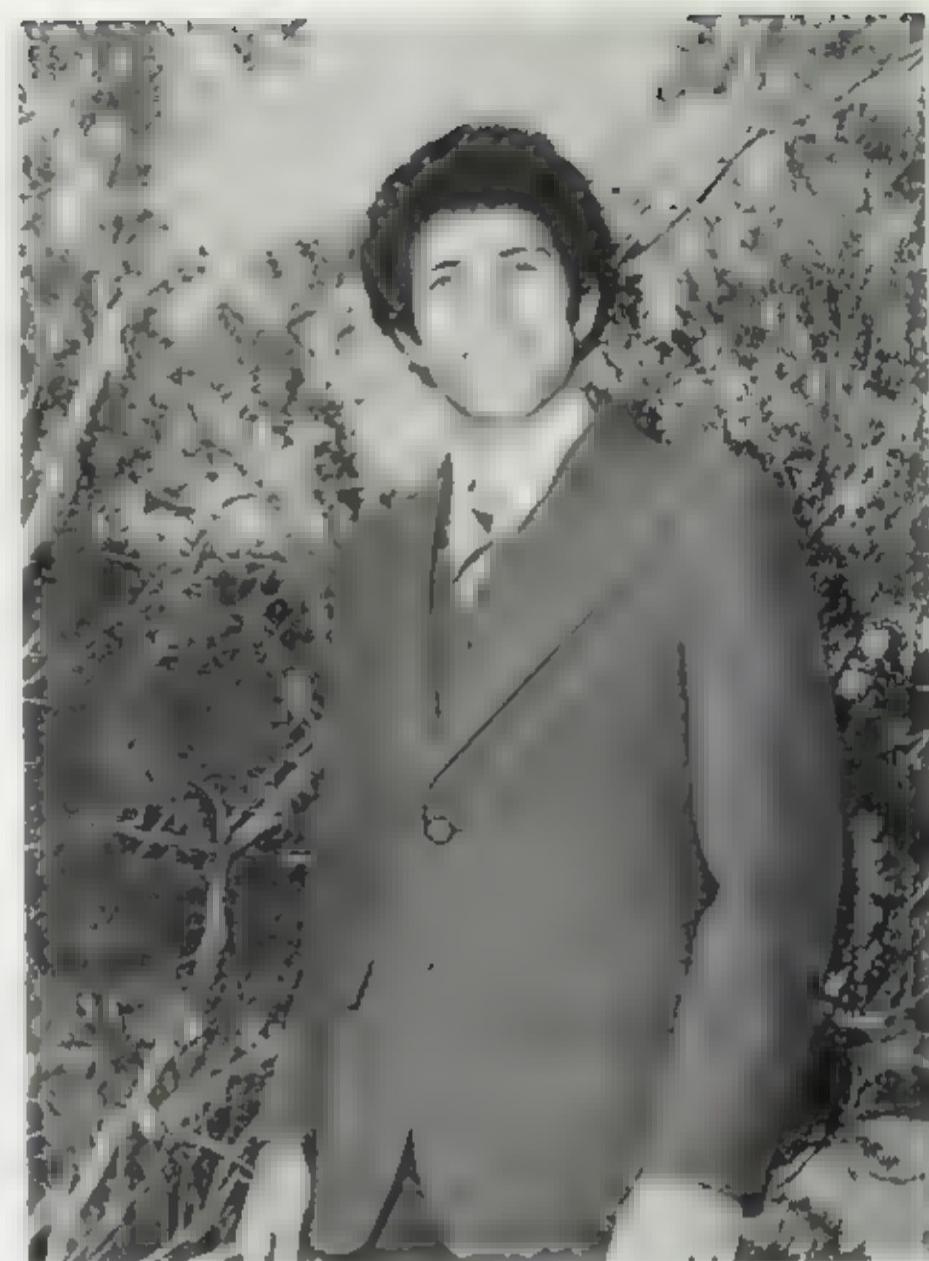

Khaldoun generated enthusiasm and excitement with every sport he participated in. He is well liked and enjoys people. Khal was selected for the National Honor Society in his senior year.

George Aldrich was an outstanding athlete and was respected and loved by all. He would have been a senior in the year 1963-64, but he passed away on his family's ranch the summer of 1963.

This award is presented to the outstanding senior boy and is donated by the Aldrich family in memory of their son.

Robert Stevenson was awarded the Arizona State University Medallion of Merit Award. Robert will receive a full year scholarship to ASU. He was nominated to Quill and Scroll, National Honor Society and is an outstanding member of Cougar newspaper staff. Robert is interested in drama, writing and motor-cycling.

Arthur Rowland received the University of Arizona Outstanding Junior Award for excellence in scholastics and citizenship. Art will receive a full year scholarship to the U. of A. He was elected to National Honor Society and his main interests are in basketball and mathematics. Art would like to go to college and major in engineering or mathematics.

ASU Medallion of Merit

U of A Outstanding Junior

General Excellence

The following people are outstanding in their fields. Top, Liz Cummings received the Excellence for English. She was also elected to National Honor Society in her junior year and received the ASU Medallion Award her junior year.

Dorie Vlatten received the Excellence in Social Studies. Her special interest is riding and she is a qualified riding instructor.

Vichaow Rakphongphairoj received the Excellence Award for Science. He enjoys reading and working with mechanical objects. Lewis Bruton received the Excellence Award for Mathematics. He lives in Sherril, Arkansas, and is interested in horses, cutting and roping.

Cactus records memories

Composed of eleven students with very little experience, the Cactus staff was faced with the impossible task of portraying the school year and all its memorable moments.

It was a slow start, filled with its share of mistakes and miscalculations and sometimes seemed as though the Cactus would never make it to the press.

Many hours were spent after school and on weekends fighting the never ending battle of "final deadlines". With all the time and devotion the staff put into this year's Cactus, we are happy to say "we made it!"

Working on a layout were Patty Bertie, Julie Krauss, Web Bixby, and Charl Boyd.

Communications Cougar style

Dale Rosenthal, Becca Rupe, Sue Heffron, Robert Stevenson discussed Cougar's new issue.

Keeping up on the latest Judson news the Cougar newspaper staff reported events and daily happenings every six weeks.

These layouts were prepared in a unique and different way. Each issue contained many individual ideas and formats. Every issue the Cougar newspaper was sent to every parent or guardian to inform them of the activities and happenings on and off campus that their children were involved in.

Students prepare

Mrs. Sherry Ruby, director, after many weeks of rehearsal was released with a final curtain call.

When not busy working on a major production for the entire student body, the Drama Class maintained their proficiency and style doing improvisations and little skits. The class also learned about props, directing and more up throughout the year. Students gained experience performing in front of an audience and learned how to "let go."

Hot item on the agenda of athletic activities this year was the soccer team. Under the guidance of the experienced instructor, Coach Blademiro Ruiz, the team worked hard and excelled in performance in competition with other schools. The roster resembled an international register with students hailing from Mexico, Trinidad, Japan, Iran, Canada and Pakistan, not to mention a diversified selection of American students.

The tennis classes were very lucky to have Mr. Ormsby as a coach. Phil has accomplished much in the tennis world. He designed and built the Palm Springs Tennis Club, and instructed tennis there; also two of his pupils became national champions; Wiley Van Horn and Joe Hunt. When Mr. Ormsby left southern California, he came to Judson and became a popular personality on campus.

Sports banquet gives

Students active in sports and their parents were invited to the traditional sports banquet, where trophies and awards were presented to outstanding and deserving athletes.

Joe Lamer opened the ceremonies who introduced the guest speaker, Mr. Bob Smider, sports editor of the Scottsdale Daily Progress.

Awards were presented to the fifth and sixth grade flag football team by their coach Roy Schalger and the seventh and eighth grade by coach Jeff Bass.

With great enthusiasm Lisa Herreras gave her lower school volleyball team their trophies for first place.

After introducing the cheerleading squad, Billie Jo Donovan gave out the Valuable Players Awards for high school volleyball. Then Coaches Pat Gilleland and George Ireland gave out trophies and letters to the football team. All of this lead up to the highlight of the evening, when Blady Ruiz presented awards to his soccer team, for the soccer championship.

Blady Ruiz presented A.I.A.A. State Champion soccer award to Mr. Wick on behalf of the soccer team.

Cowboys excel in riding and roping

Judson, a western school, keeps with the tradition of rodeo activities by boasting a fine roping team. Over the years, a complete stock of calves and steers has been maintained for roping and team tying. Most of the 17 boys on the team ride their own horses, but there are excellent horses available at the school corral for those who do not.

Preston Brady presides over the practices, which are in preparation for the end of the year ROPE-OFF, but leaders have been elected also: President, Tom Neilev; Vice President, Fred Slyfield; Secretary-treasurer, Stew Cellers.

The Judson Roping Team is highly competitive, and is recognized with high standing on the Arizona Rodeo Circuit.

Parada Del Sol is

Scottsdale Jaycees sponsored the well known Parada Del Sol. The parade is an annual event having begun almost a quarter of a century ago. Judson has been actively involved since the beginning.

This year, Judson contributed both English and Western riders to participate in the traditional equestrian procession.

Judson's group of guards carried American and the school flags.

Western riders paraded down Scottsdale Road.

Parade in the Sun

Thousands of spectators enjoyed the big event.

Preparations for the event were exciting as riders braided colored ribbons and put school color bows on their horses. The lucky animals were gently bathed and brushed and cared for with concern. Final arrangements began at 4:30 a.m. including polishing tack and riding gear.

One of the few groups to display a different style was the big standing ease.

Equestrian team

Anyone who rode or was interested in horses was welcome to join the JETS Judson Equestrian Team. Their activities included participation in many horse shows and banquets organized by the officers for the members. It was a familiar sight to see members of the JETS selling pretzels at juice break to raise extra funds for special Club activities.

Vaulting team is new

Judson Vaulting team was introduced to the students by Elly Trepas, the English Riding teacher. Membership was available to grade schoolers as well as high school students.

Vaulting actually means the art of gymnastics on a moving horse, usually a trot or canter.

A special device called a suremgle goes around the horse's belly and has handles which are used to maintain balance.

The team members practiced six exercises which were mandatory in competition, and the club planned competition with local teams.

The main purpose of vaulting was to develop balance and courage in themselves and trust in their horses.

Judson's International Club was formed during the school year to allow students to get the flavor of foreign countries, and to learn about different cultures. The club was a unique way for students to take advantage of the various different ways of life the foreign students have experienced. The program was organized by Larry Sullivan, Mrs. Doris Bale and Miss Peggy Dodge. Speakers were invited to Judson to meet with members, and there were numerous culture displays at A.S.U. The club consisted of members from Iran, Mexico, Saudi Arabia, Peru, Japan, Libya and different states in America. There were roughly twenty members, who decided on an informal organization without dues, but did agree on fund raising operations to help cover the cost of special outings.

The many foreign students this year were a link in the chain of life at Judson. There was a mutual benefit between the students, as the foreigners learned from us as we learned from them. Thanks to the foreign students, who made life at Judson even more interesting.

Electronics is an elective course which provided interested students with a wide range of technical knowledge. In class the AC/DC theory is taught and all have the opportunity to create their own projects. Radios, conductors, and transmitters were made for personal use, and students also fixed electronic devices on campus that were in need of repairs.

Musical program at Judson this year was full of excitement and creativity. Mrs. Larson aided her interested students in preparation for the Spring Art's Festival and "making their own kind of music." The music class had a very large enrollment, but any student who wished to join could do so. There were private teachers on hand for instruction in banjo, guitar, woodwinds, and vocals. Many students sat and listened to the musical talents, joining in and having fun, and sometimes the players were the audience.

Lower school gives Christmas play

The fifth and sixth grades sing the same song in the Christmas program—Merry, Merry Christmas.

The first grade present German Christmas cards.

Nursery school, kindergarten, and first grade sing "To Santa Claus."

Many activities

Bottom Row: Tony Okwui, Neema Garza, Beth Werner, Frances Satin, June of All OTC • Row 2: Dawn Mlinar, Desi Dubek, Coach, Suellen Morris, Kathy Evans, Vicki Gandy Sauer

Jackie in the costume I made!

Cork Barn stampede team work

available to students

Bottom Row: Job Caudell, Mic Meek, Jim Harste, Nelson Lowe, and Spiro Alvonilos. Top Row: Troy Hare, John Graham, Mr. Bass, Edwin Cardwell, and Charles Newland.

Mic Meek raced across court in control of ball

Bass enjoys freedom after school playing football

Russell Meathers supported this year's staff with pictures and helped through the hustle and strain of meeting deadlines. With a strong patience, he was always ready with a smile. Basic and happy professionalism was a rare opportunity for a young Sabbath teacher.

Our thanks to Jim Duke, also who provided us pictures

In Memoriam

Judson was saddened by the death of Mrs. Marcia Douglas, a tiny person with a large heart. Memories of "Dougie," a beloved dorm mother, reached out to hundreds of girls for nine years. Her passing has left a void in the minds and hearts of many. She was a friend to all, and a mother to the girls who knew her. Memories of "Dougie," a beloved part of Judson, will sparkle always, like sunlight, on the dorms she loved.

New Horizons

They say there is a lost horizon
Waiting to be found full of beauty and splendor that few have ever found

They say in this lost horizon life is peaceful and forever and this lost horizon is still waiting to be found

So you say you want to find it and live the life you have missed where life can be forever
full of all its beauty and bliss

So I say to you, my friend,
this is where you are wrong
there has never been a lost horizon
only New Horizons

how can I be wrong

In my search for the lost horizon
I have only found the new full of all its excitement and pleasures
many new friendships, too

So I say to you, my friend,
look ahead and you will find it
Life is what you make it and here is where it is found
Life is here so take it then how can you ever go wrong

"An honest man is hard to find."

Diogenes

Those of us at Judson are grateful for the opportunity to have worked with a man who is honest

- in his understanding of each individual's strengths and needs
- in his humane relationships with staff, students and parents
- in his awareness of the varied interdependencies of all personnel
- in his efforts to promote quality education
- in the unstinting energies expended in his daily work
- in the integrity evidenced in his considered judgment
- in his leadership informed by insight and foresight
- in his concern for all persons in the Judson community

We, at Judson, have found an honest man-

Hugh M. Slattery, Headmaster
